

ATTENTION TENANTS

What should you do if you are concerned about:

- 1. The health or safety of your apartment;
- 2. The maintenance of the property;
- 3. Your rent or your Section 8 assistance?

This property receives federal Section 8 assistance through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”) and is subject to oversight by HUD’s Project Based Contract Administrator (“PBCA”). The PBCA in New York State is NYS Homes and Community Renewal (“HCR”), working in partnership with CGI.

HCR’s mission is to help ensure tenants have access to safe, decent, and affordable housing. We encourage you to communicate any concerns to your property manager; it is most often the fastest way to get your problem addressed. Here are the steps you may take:

Step 1: Contact your property manager and/or resident committee first.

For this property, please contact:

Contact information and instructions for concerns:

ALWAYS Dial 911 in Life-Threatening Situations.

Step 2: Contact the CGI Call Center

If you are a Section 8 tenant who contacted the property manager or resident committee and did not receive guidance or a resolution -or- if contacting the property manager with your particular concern would not be appropriate, the CGI Call Center may be able to help.

The CGI Call Center has a team of Customer Relation Specialists (CRS) who receive, investigate, and respond to incoming concerns.

CGI Call Center Purpose

- Serves as a neutral third party to residents, owners, and the public
- Monitors properties for compliance with HUD regulations
- Ensures residents are provided with decent, safe, and sanitary housing
